And whereas Our said late Royal Father, and Our late Royal Brother King George the Fourth, considering the Premises, and earnestly desiring more effectually to provide for the better Arrangement, Preservation, and more convenient Use of the said Records and Papers, did, by several Warrants under Their Royal Sign Manual, authorize and appoint the several Persons therein severally named, and any Three or more of them, to make a diligent and particular Inquiry into the several Matters which had in the above-mentioned Report been represented as fitting to be provided for by Royal Authority, and to do such other Matters and Things touching the Premises as were therein-before set forth:

And whereas the several Persons by the said several Warrants appointed did duly proceed in the Execution of the several Matters committed to their Charge, and have made considerable Progress therein, as by their annual Certificates to Our said late Royal Father and to Our said late Royal Brother in Their Privy Council appears; but some of the said Persons are since deceased, or have become less able to attend to the Duties so required of them; and it is expedient to appoint others in their Place, in such Manner as may give more complete and permanent Effect to the Royal Intentions in this Behalf: Know ye, therefore, that we do hereby determine the said several Warrants, and every Clause, Article, and Thing therein contained.

And further know ye, That We, considering the Premises, and earnestly desiring further and more effectually to provide for the better Arrangement, Preservation, and more convenient Use of the said Records and Papers, and also having thought it expedient that diligent and full Inquiry should be made whether any beneficial Alterations or Reforms can be introduced into the Offices and Repositories of Public Records and the general Course of Business therein, and reposing great Trust and Confidence in your Fidelity, Discretion, and Integrity, have authorized and appointed, and by these Presents do authorize and appoint, you the said William Archbishop of Canterbury, Henry Lord Brougham and Vaux, William Viscount Melbourne, or the Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department for the Time being; Charles Manners Sutton, or the Speaker of the House of Commons for the Time being; John Charles Spencer, commonly called Viscount Althorpe, or the Chancellor and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer for the Time being; Sir John Leach, or the Master of the Rolls for the Time being; William Dundas, or the Lord Clerk Register of Scotland for the Time being; George John Earl Spencer, George Hamilton Earl of Aberdeen, Edward Lord Bishop of Llandaff, Thomas Grenville, Charles Watkin Williams Wynn, Sir James Mackintosh, Henry Hobhouse, George Agar Ellis, Sir James Parke, Sir John Bernard Bosanquet, Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Louis Hayes Petit, Henry Bellenden Ker, Henry Hallam, John Allen, Edward Protheroe, Edward Vernon Utterson, and William Brougham, or any Three or more of you, (whereof the said Chancellor of Great Britain, the said Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, the said Speaker of the House of Commons, the said Chancellor and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, the said Master of the Rolls, or the said Lord Clerk Register of Scotland, to be one,) further to make a diligent and particular Inquiry into the several Matters which the faithful Commons of Our said late Royal Father did in the above-mentioned Report of their Proceedings represent as fitting to be provided for by Royal Authority; and also to make full and diligent Inquiry into the Duties of the several Officers, Clerks, and other Ministers having the Care, Custody, or Management of the Public Records in all their several Departments, and into the Salaries, Fees, and other Emoluments and Perquisites received by such Officers, Clerks, Ministers, and other Persons, and also into the Rules, Usages, and Regulations of the several Record Offices and other Repositories of Public Records, and the general Course of Business therein, and all Matters connected therewith; and also to inquire whether any and what Reforms, Alterations, Amendments, and Improvements may be beneficially introduced therein, and how such Reforms, Alterations, Amendments, and Improvements may be best carried into effect.
